How to Share your Story

To add your voice and art to the The Bully Project Mural website, simply follow these steps:

1 Login to Behance project.

If you do not have a Behance Account, go to www.behance.net and select "Log in" at the upper right of the page. Behance uses Adobe ID for login credentials. If you need to create an Adobe ID (free to everyone), select the link in the middle of the login page.

2 Make your Behance project.

- Create your artwork in any way you want, in any media you want.
- Place your main imagery/artwork at the top of your project page. You can include other supporting pieces or documents explaining your work, thoughts, or experiences as well.
- Help spread the word by providing a link so people can find The Bully Project Mural website: <http://www.thebullyprojectmural.com>
- Upload your Behance cover image.
This is the image that will appear on the home page of The Bully Project Mural website. This image can be a version of your main artwork or another piece you have created. Please note: We will be center-cropping this image on the side to create a square shaped image to fit with our grid.

For more information about creating a Behance project, visit this page:

3 Publish and share your project.

Use the hashtag #thebullyprojectmural so our team can find your project.

Our team will be reviewing and selecting projects to add to the The Bully Project Mural website.

All submissions must follow the guidelines described above. Submission is not a guarantee of publication on The Bully Project Mural website. Adobe reserves the right to remove projects from this site at any time.
